Project information

Artifort invites you to the Artifort showcase in New York during ICFF. An assembly of iconic, modular and brand new Artifort designs. The show emphasizes affinities and stylistic preferences and offers a new perspective on the broad range of internationally recognized furniture Artifort has contributed to design. Whether it being meeting, sitting, waiting or relaxing: Artifort has addressed it with perfect solutions.

New setup of newly designed modular sofa: Figura

Artifort proudly introduces the newly designed Figura in a surprising setup. Figura's multifunctional system can be adapted in an endless number of ways, making it suitable for any interior. When designing, designer Khodi Feiz aimed to create the kind of sofa that offers the best possible comfort and relaxation after a long day. Figura is extremely comfortable and suits in both modern and classic interiors. Its soft, fluid lines are the foundation of Figura's exceptional elegance.

Inspirational design since 1890

Artifort has been producing furniture that appeals to generation after generation. Before the turn of the millennium, iconic classics by designers such as Kho Liang le, Pierre Paulin and Geoffrey D. Harcourt RDI had already established the essence of Artifort. And, today it's no exception, working closely with leading international designers, Artifort continues its mission of creating future classics. Through its use of innovative production techniques, Artifort is able to make sustainable high-quality furniture that fits the desire that create the best experience for residential, work and public areas.

Artifort's furniture has a soul: it's part of your home, your office and your life. Design for sitting, waiting, meeting, storing and discussing. It's furniture features in permanent collections of renowned museums such as the Museum of Modern Art in New York and Centre Pompidou in Paris.
